

See School Enrolment To Reach New Height

Newmarket — The "good old golden rule days" begin again on Tuesday, and many toddlers will have their first initiation into the realm of the three "R's". Public school authorities say of "first-timers" than ever before that advance estimates in Newmarket indicate a larger number and the numbers in attendance at both public and high schools are expected to be considerably higher than formerly.

Rudy Renzius, chairman of the Newmarket public school board, said that everything at the schools is expected to be spic and span when September 2 rolls around. The installation of the new heating system at the Alexander Muir school has been just about completed, and the minor repairs of painting, plumbing, roofing, and tuck pointing are finished. Nothing has been done nor can be done this year about the wiring for the proposed new lighting system because it cannot be done on this year's budget. The new heating system was a major expense, and the radiators are all that have yet to come. They are expected momentarily, Mr. Renzius said.

"We have all the teachers needed to fill the five vacancies, and the same caretakers will carry on. Everything is all set to go."

"Two stores report that they are carrying a full line of supplies for public school use, and the manager of one of them says he has also all of the requirements for the high school and commercial student with the possible exception of English books. 'There are no definite authorized texts for English—they are left pretty much to the discretion of the individual teacher, but aside from them, we have a full line,' he said."

A third store manager said he was carrying stationery supplies but no text books. One manager said that this year has been the best yet insofar as supplies coming in were concerned, and that in his store school supplies were already selling at the first of the week. All were apprehensive of the "first day rush" on Tuesday.

J. H. KNOWLES STARTS 25TH YEAR AT A.H.S.

Aurora — Classes at Aurora high school will open on Tuesday, Sept. 2, for all students but those of grades 12 and 13. The senior students will report on Thursday, Sept. 4.

J. H. KNOWLES

Principal J. H. Knowles this year commences his 25th consecutive year at the Aurora school, and the present edifice also marks its silver anniversary. The staff has two changes this year. Miss Josephine Beynon replaces Miss Alberta Sinclair in English and Art, and William Capel of Owen Sound will take over shop work. Mr. Capel replaces Roland Modde who has obtained a year's leave of absence to attend his final year in Arts at the University of Toronto. Returning to the staff are Norman Johnson (science), Wilfred Adams (history), Arnold Miller (math), J. C. Gregoire (p. t. and lower school), Miss Aileen Belyea (p. t.), Miss Lois Spooner (French), Miss Grace Griffin (home economics), and Mrs. Jean Cameron (Latin). Illyd Harris will be in charge of music.

Large classes are expected in the first year as has been the case the past two years.

LANGSTAFF CHALKS 2-1 WIN OVER VETS

In a sparkling game that saw the heavy hitters completely squelched by opposing moundsmen, Langstaff took the opening game of the best in five series, for the North Yonge softball championship at Newmarket last Thursday 2-1. The win surprised the large crowd who had installed the Vets as pre-game favorites.

Bill Bowen on the mound for Langstaff fanned no less than 16 batters and gave up but two hits. Every Newmarket batter but McComb and Charlie VanZant went down swinging at least once. Bill VanZant started on the mound for Newmarket and pitched a game good enough to win in most cases. McComb replaced him in the fifth and ended strongly.

Newmarket scored in the first as Legge walked, took second on a passed ball and scored on McComb's hit. Langstaff tied it in the top of the second as Charles lashed out a hit, took second on a wild pitch, and Armstrong advanced him with a beautiful bunt. Russell's drive put the tying run over. In the fourth, Norm Bowen walked, reached second on outs by Bill Bowen and Charles and came home as Armstrong pumped a hit into left field. Bowen, Armstrong and Charles were the three stars for the winners. McComb stood out on all counts for the losers. It was the first win scored by Langstaff over Newmarket in two years.

Luck, Budd, Mordison Win Elmer Still Cup

Jack Luck, Bert Budd and Andrew Mordison won permanent possession of the Elmer Still trophy at Stouffville yesterday with a high score of 58 plus 2, there being a full entry at this club.

This is the third time it has been won by Newmarket, and now becomes the property of the club. The winning of this trophy was all the more gratifying as it was their fifth straight triumph tournament with 15 wins. It may be that luck will stay with them to help make it 16.

Beat Tie To Take Cobourg, Port Credit Next On List

Newmarket Ladies won an eight-inning thriller at Pantry Park Tuesday evening as they turned back Cobourg "Pavilions" 6-5. It took an extra inning to declare a winner. At the end of the seventh, the teams were deadlocked 4-4. It was a thrilling contest with the issue in doubt until the eighth.

Both teams chalked up a row of goose eggs on the score sheet until the fourth, the Newmarket nine going for four runs in that frame. Two were out at the time but five hits and a walk gave them four runs. The side batted around before Cobourg was able to register the third out.

The visitors broke into the scoring whirl with single runs in the fifth and sixth. They moved into a 4-4 deadlock with two tallies in the seventh. In the top of the eighth, the visitors forged to the front with a run, only the fast double killing made by Mary Osborne and Mona Dean holding it to that.

Here was the situation. The canastown needed a run to stay in the hunt. Lois Blight stroled to first, after one out was recorded, to open the eighth. Third sacker Mary Osborne promptly dumped a double into centre and Edna McGrath walked to populate the base-paths. Mona Dean followed this with a blow that brought Lois Blight in with the tying run and Mary Osborne in from second with the winning counter. It was the old ball game right there.

Heister Clark pitched good ball going the route and was given good support in the field. There was plenty of action all evening in the field. "Tiny" MacInnis pulling down several drives into left field. "Tiny" handled six outfield chances without a mis-cue. Phil Osborne supplied one

Newmarket Flower Show

Newmarket — The Newmarket Horticultural Society held its annual gladioli show on Saturday at Trinity United church. R. C. Dodson, Aurora, was the judge of the show and Mrs. C. Harmon won the Robert Simpson trophy for the best decorated basket of gladioli. Mrs. C. Peterson was awarded the T. Eaton trophy as the exhibitor who had won the highest number of points in all the shows for 1947. The sweepstakes aster and sweepstakes gladioli were also won by Mrs. C. Peterson. For the first time a complete beginners' show was included in the show and it is hoped that in future years more new members of the society will enter in these sections.

The show was well attended by the general public and much praise was received by Edward Brammer, chairman of the show committee, for this excellent showing, both as to the quality of the bloom and the arrangement of the display.

Aurora Flower Show

Aurora — The Fall Flower Show of the Aurora Horticultural Society was held in the United Church Sunday school rooms on Saturday, with Leonard Butt of Huttonville as judge. There was a very good display of flowers and Mrs. C. G. Peterson won the sweepstakes award for the finest spike of gladioli in the show.

NO HOLIDAY COLLECTION

Newmarket — Monday, Sept. 1, being a Labor Day holiday, there will not be any collection of garbage in the municipality, according to Town Clerk Wesley Brooks.

Garbage collected Monday will be picked up on Tuesday and the Tuesday collection made on Wednesday. The remainder of the week will be on the regular schedule.

Householders are asked to co-operate by not putting their garbage out on the streets on the holiday.

BANKS ALERT FOR ATTEMPT BY ESCAPEES

Newmarket — Bank of Montreal Manager R. D. Brown and Bank of Toronto Manager H. E. Lambert said on Tuesday that they have received no new instructions from their respective head offices concerning what should be done in the event that Donald "Mickey" McDonald and Ulysses Lauzon, recent escapees from the Kingston Penitentiary, decide to attempt a hold-up of the Newmarket branches of the banks but both have held staff meetings to discuss procedure should such an event occur.

"All the clerks have been warned to be on their guard and not to leave any large amounts of money out," said Mr. Lambert. "Actually, there is very little you can do when there is a hold-up because when you are covered with a gun you do what you are told. You can not plan specific action."

Mr. Lambert said he had been manager of the Bank of Toronto branch at Wyomung when it was held up by Ed. McMullen and his gang in 1921.

"Someone phoned this morning and said he had heard on a newscast that McDonald was believed to have headed up No. 27 highway after the Long Branch hold-up, but I do not know whether it has definitely been established that McDonald or his gang even did that job," Mr. Brown said. "If he did come this way I don't know whether that sign on the door saying that we have an alarm system would make any difference or not. However we have warned all of our clerks to keep their eyes open and their mouths shut. There is really nothing we can do if they come in with guns anyway."

A third penitentiary escapee, Nicholas Minelli, Ottawa, is believed by police to have separated from the other two.

NEW TORONTO FLOORS VETS WITH 10-1 WIN

GEO. HASKETT JR. Newmarket Vets dropped their first O.A.S.A. contest to New Toronto Legion on Wednesday evening at Pantry Park. New Toronto walked off the field with a 10-1 triumph.

The McDonald crew was unable to solve the southpaw slants of Jack Venner for the visitors. In all, the Vets got six hits, shortstop Harvey Gibney cashing in with two of these. Mickey Smith, Doug. Eves, Joint McComb and Moe Walsh got the other safeties.

In the eighth the Vets got their lone counter. Harv Gibney cracking out a liner that bounced off Pitcher Venner's ankle. When the smoke had cleared, Gib was resting on third but was waved back to second and Venner was forced to leave the game for repairs. Norm Legge walked and Joint McComb sent Gibney scampering home with a line drive that floored Pitcher Nattawary, who replaced Venner on the mound.

The invading New Toronto's opened their scoring in the third with a single tally and added four in the fifth and two in the sixth. The Legion squad closed off their scoring shenanigans with three in the eighth. "Cecars" McDonald used three of his mound corps in an attempt to hold the visitors. "Joint" McComb went in to start followed by "Lefty" Glover with Bill VanZant taking over in the ninth to get the last two batters. "Cecars" takes his squad to the Goodyear Field, New Toronto, Saturday for the return engagement.

WILL HOLD TOURNAMENT
A mixed fours bowling tournament for the J. O. Little trophy will be held at Newmarket greens on Monday, Sept. 1.

Will Maintain Spirit At Pickering - Rourke

Newmarket — The cornerstone of Pickering education will always be the friendly relations between staff and students and the underlying principles of the school will be maintained, said R. E. K. Rourke, the new headmaster of Pickering College, when interviewed on his appointment.

The appointment of Mr. Rourke was announced by Samuel Rogers, K.C., chairman of the board of management of the school. Harry M. Beer has been appointed Assistant Headmaster. Mr. Rourke succeeds Joseph McCulley, M.A., who, after being headmaster of the college for over 20 years, recently resigned to accept a federal government appointment.

A native of Brockville, Mr. Rourke has been on the staff of Pickering College since 1928. He is an honor graduate of Queen's University, where he was a gold medalist in mathematics. He took his M.A. at Harvard where he was twice appointed Shattuck scholar. He is now president of the mathematics and physics section of the O.E.A. Mr. Rourke was appointed assistant headmaster at the College in 1938 and since 1942 has been associate headmaster. He has taken an active part in school activities as director of the glee club, famous for its annual productions of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, and in leading special interest groups. Mr. Rourke is co-author of "An Advanced Course in Algebra" and "Trigonometry and Statics" and is director of Camp Mazinaw.

Harry Beer, who becomes assistant headmaster, is a Pickering "old boy" and has been associated with the school as student and master since 1928. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto.

"I am proud of the reputation Pickering has won in academics, athletics, and Canadian education, and proud to be chosen as her new headmaster. I am not a new man coming in and while Mr. Beer and I are a new team, we are not new at Pickering," said Mr. Rourke. "Those who know Pickering are aware of the nature of my associations with Mr. McCulley over a period of 20 years: it is unnecessary for me to tell them that I and my colleagues will devote ourselves wholeheartedly to the task of maintaining the spirit and ideals of Pickering."

Offers Frontage To Aid In Widening Main St.

Newmarket — Clerk Wesley Brooks was instructed to write a letter of appreciation to Andrew Hebb in reply to a letter received by the Newmarket town council last week. The letter read, "It is in the interests of the town and of Main St. property-owners that the present width of the street should be maintained, and also that it be widened as opportunity permits."

"Our property line in front of 140-142 Main St. is apparently about five feet in front of the present building (excluding steps). The frontage is something over 50 feet, including four feet subject to right-of-way. If you think that it would advance the town's plan for widening the street, my wife and I would be glad to give to the town this land in front of our property."

Two letters were also received from the A. E. Wilson Insurance Co., one advising the town that

Wider Representation Sought For Recreation

Newmarket — R. C. Morrison, chairman of the Newmarket Recreation Commission, said in an interview on Tuesday that in the fall various town organizations will be invited to appoint representatives to form an advisory body for the present seven-man commission, "in order that the council might attain wider scope in its activities."

"The council will be soliciting different individuals and organizations for support to maintain its fall campaign, and will also ask organizations which spent money for recreation to submit their accounts to the commission, so that the organizations might get their provincial grants," he said.

Members of the commission this year are R. C. Morrison and Mrs. Caroline Edwards, representing the Newmarket town council; James B. Walker and G. A. Crutcher, from the 1946 recreation council; Ed. Gould, representing the Newmarket separate school board; and Mrs. N. L. Mathews and Fred. Hall, representing the public school board. "At the start of the year the commission received a grant of $500 from the town council, and the members felt that the amount was insufficient to per-

Carnival Grosses $4,000 For Lions Welfare Work

Newmarket — The Newmarket Lions club grossed an estimated $4,000 at its carnival last week, according to H. J. Luck, chairman of the carnival committee. Despite the rain which forced postponement of the street dance from Thursday to Friday, the amount compares favorably with last year.

The two-day carnival is an annual affair which is sponsored by the Newmarket club to raise funds for its welfare work. Last year the club used the funds for the purchase of glasses for children, the payment of medical expenses for children, provision of extra supplies and cod liver oil for distribution by the public health nurse.

During six weeks in the summer, the club has sponsored a free, supervised playground for public school age children. This year the average attendance at the playground was 150.

"The rain was a big disappointment this year," said Mr. Luck. "We had the booths set up and were tuning up for the dance on Thursday night when it began to fall. Thanks to the courtesy of Harold Smith, lessee of the Newmarket Arena, we were able to hold the dance and booths in the arena Friday night. The crowd that attended were good sports and took the interruption by the weather in the best frame of mind. Unfortunately, we were short handed throughout the three days and it meant those who turned up had to work much harder than should be necessary."

Wednesday night, at the Lions park saw the usual big crowd.

OAKVILLE CAPTURES WALKER GOLF CUP

A quartet from Oakville captured the Walker Cup at the Aurora golf club on Saturday as 18 foursomes sweated over 18 holes at the Highlands Club. It marked the second time in a decade the trophy has departed from Aurora. Golfers were present from Barrie, Orillia, Collingwood, Lake Wilcox, Willowdale, Pine Point and Aurora and all were warm in their praise of the condition of the Aurora course.

Jim Windsor, Dick Davidson, Jim McFayden and Doug MacKellar formed the winning team. Runners up were the Aurora foursome of Walter Tunney, Howard Patrick, H. Patton and W. Shields. Barrie, headed by the well-known amateur star, Bill Dymont, took down third honors. D. M. MacKellar of Oakville took the low gross honors firing a 73. Four were tied for low net, Herb Cain, Harold Stephens, H. Patton and J. McFayden with 68.

Willison Crichton Winner Of John Stuart Award

Aurora — Willison Crichton of Kettleby is the 1947 winner of the John Stuart Scholarship, it has been announced by Principal J. H. Knowles of Aurora high school. Crichton obtained nine firsts and one second in the recent senior matriculation results. Interested in debating and theatricals, Willison will enter Toronto University and has chosen teaching as his vocation.

The fourth winner of the scholarship, young Crichton follows in the footsteps of his sister Mary, who won several scholarships, and maintained her high academic standing throughout her university career. Previous winners of the Stuart scholarship, which has a cash value of $50, or one year's tuition fees at Queen's University in Commerce and Finance, are John Crysdale (final year university), Bill Babcock (second year Arts), Harold Lubbock (Linotype).

While no official announcement will be made for some days, it is thought likely that Crichton or Miss Gerry McDonald of King, runner up to Crichton for the form prize, will be awarded the King township scholarship provided for the University of Toronto by Prof. Victor Bladen and a group of interested township residents. The scholarship in existence for several years has never been previously awarded. Both Crichton and Miss McDonald stand excellent chances also of receiving other awards because of their standing.

MCCULLEY APPOINTMENT COSTS TOWN A FRIEND

The appointment of Mr. Joseph McCulley as deputy commissioner of penitentiaries has been greeted with unqualified approval. Mr. McCulley's ability as an educator and his experience as an organizer in education— notably in connection with Khaki College, the services' university in England—have marked him as a man eminently suited for the job.

In Newmarket, however, the distinction of the appointment is overshadowed by a regret in losing a neighbor, for in the years he has been here, Mr. McCulley has become a very real part of the community. As a friend, as an active participant in public affairs, "Joe" McCulley will be greatly missed.

There is some compensation in the knowledge that the friendly association between "town and gown" in the McCulley tradition will be carried on by his successor, Mr. R. E. K. Rourke. Long associated, headmaster, Mr. Rourke is well known to Newmarket, chiefly, perhaps, through the annual presentation of a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta which he has directed and played a leading role in for many years.

'COASTGUARD' NEEDED FOR RESORT LAKES

At the inquest into the death of a Toronto youngster following the explosion aboard a cruiser in Dawson's Boat Harbor on the Jersey River, reference was made to the lack of life-saving equipment along the Simcoe shore. Mr. Arthur Dawson, called as a witness, is recorded in the official transcript of the evidence as saying:

"There is no life-saving equipment on the lake whatsoever. If anybody blows up or drowns, we have to go out ourselves to get him. It has been recommended before dozens of times but they don't pay enough money."

Coroner Dr. L. W. Dales: "The government should send inspectors up there some hot afternoon in the summer and see what goes on. It is a shame, a crime—boats filled with children and running wild up there."

Mr. Dawson: "Dr. Dales can tell you there's rowboats go out the river (Jersey) with seven or eight kids in them and (a very small part) of the boat above the water."

The comments of Dr. Dales and Mr. Dawson referred to Lake Simcoe, but they can be applied with equal force to every resort lake. In some instances, resort operators maintain life-guards for the protection of their guests, but as a general rule, there is no protection for the miles of beach either privately owned or public.

A swimmer in distress, a passenger in a four-ender craft are dependent upon whoever happens to be in sight to succor them. The crowded condition of most resort lakes and a goodly portion of luck has been all that has kept loss of life so low. But how long is that luck going to last?

Protection on resort lakes is a matter for the province to undertake. The municipalities bordering resort lakes lack the funds and the trained personnel to maintain an "inland coast-guard". The province has the resources and authority to determine the areas needing the most protection, decide the establishment of life-saving stations, provide mobile equipment, and establish regular patrols.

Only the province can consistently establish and enforce safety requirements for private motor driven and sailing craft, and police boat rental services, assuring safe craft and proper usage. Only the province could levy a tax on all waterfront properties to finance such a service.

Resort lakes, along with the fishing and hunting to be had in the province, are among the most vital of Ontario's assets. Game wardens protect the wild life but there is no protection for human life. Surely the children playing on the beaches of our hundreds of lakes, the passengers aboard our thousands of boats are as important as the bass and the pheasants.

MR. PEGLER ON THE WEEKLY PRESS

Mr. Westbrook Pegler is a columnist in the United States who sometimes confuses himself with a personification of the Last Word on issues public and otherwise. He is found in these columns because he said some kind words about the weekly press. Mr. Pegler, however, is apparently not one to bestow unqualified praise and so there was a thorn in the midst of his bouquet to the effect that city papers were more honest than their weekly contemporaries.

We take issue with Mr. Pegler on that score. Had he said that weekly papers were not as honest as they could be, then we would be silent, for the weekly press has not yet attained perfection. But to make a comparison with the city papers—why the charge rocks our 75-year-old press to its very foundations.

Says Mr. Pegler: "There is one point in which the small town journalist is weak, and that is in candor about his community. He is a neighbor to his neighbors, obliged to pull his punches for the sake of his peace. . . . He knows, in fact, that in the matter of, let us say, mischief his community has the same per capita rating as any big city but the personal element is important so the character of the country town is not accurately reflected in the country press."

If Mr. Pegler had been thorough in his study of the weekly press, he would have learned that the weeklies carry proportionately the same amount of reportage about "mischief" as the dailies. The difference is this: the daily press, dealing in sensationalism because it sells more papers, features such news with glaring headlines. The weekly press sees such cops and robbers activity as only a part of community life, to be considered along with the two-headed calf on the back concession and the ice cream social on the church lawn. In its exploitation of certain kinds of news, the daily press often neglects the other elements of community living, something a weekly paper neither wishes nor can afford to do.

The personal element prevents absolute frankness in reporting, says Mr. Pegler, but it is that same personal element that enables the rural editor to report more fully than his city counterpart. No city editor is as close to his community as a rural editor, and no rural editor worth his salt suppresses distasteful news because he knows the principals by their first name. He can't. Such events become known sooner or later in a small town and the fact it wasn't printed forfeits for that paper the respect of its readers.

Charge that our type is sometimes clipped and our proof reading spotty, and our presses sometimes break down, but don't criticize our honesty. The weekly press has worked hard to build an enviable reputation for integrity in recording the history of the communities it serves. It is the daily press which suffers, not the weeklies, in such comparisons.

ABBOTT'S STATEMENT DOES NOT ANSWER FACTS

The United States has agreed to the suspension of the free convertibility clause in its loan agreement with Great Britain as a means of conserving Britain's dwindling supply of U.S. dollars. Under the terms of the free convertibility clause, Britain was required to honor all demands by nations holding sterling credits in U.S. dollars thus undergoing a severe drain upon its dollar supply.

The announcement of the suspension of the clause has aroused considerable misgivings as to its effect on Canada's already precarious exchange position. Canada has been exporting to Britain on payment of 50 percent in U.S. dollars and 50 percent on drafts against the Canadian loan to Britain. The suspension of free convertibility cannot ultimately avoid effecting American dollar payments.

At the same time, imports to Canada from the United States have reached a record peak for the first six months of the year with a resulting adverse trade balance of $488 million. The payments by Britain in American dollars have helped to prevent a heavier liability. Some $220 million has been paid to Canada in U.S. dollars from the American loan to Britain but indications now are that the suspension of free convertibility has meant an end to this source of American dollars for Canada.

Sir Wilfrid Eady, chief of the British financial mission to Washington, is quoted as saying "Canada's position will be seriously affected by what we have done and negotiations with her treasury officers are going on at this moment." And again, "Canada is in real difficulty." In reply, the minister of finance, Hon. Douglas Abbott, has said that the suspension of the convertibility clause will have little effect on Canada.

There is speculation that Mr. Abbott's statement can be taken as an indication that Canada will insist on continuing dollar payments. If so, it hardly does credit to ministerial intelligence. Britain is Canada's best customer; it is very much to Canada's interest to maintain its trade with Britain. To continue a drain upon Britain's dollars is to add to Britain's difficulty in maintaining that trade.

Most disquieting aspect of the crisis is what amounts to official indifference towards the public by Canadian officials. Any Canadian tourist who has attempted to pay with Canadian dollars south of the border is aware of the disrepute our currency has fallen into. There can be little confidence in Mr. Abbott's statement in view of this and the foregoing facts. It is only now, according to one report from Ottawa, that the 50-50 payment for Canadian goods has become public although in effect for some months.

Canada is caught between the need to correct its adverse trade balance with the United States and the need to continue its exports to a Britain no longer able to pay in United States dollars. The decisions made to correct this situation will have a lasting effect on Canadian economy. The public has a right to a frank statement of government policy. Failing that, the public can only conclude that the government lacks a policy.

More Dignity And Less Horns

Why is it necessary to signal the joining of a couple in holy matrimony by honking car horns up and down Main St.? It is true that marriage is generally considered a once-in-a-lifetime occasion and thus worthy of a certain amount of celebration, but why must the celebrants enjoy themselves at the expense of the innocent bystanders?

There is little in life more irritating than to be robbed of a peaceful Saturday afternoon sleep by the honking of automobile horns as the couple is escorted along the first few miles of their new life. Certainly, if anything qualifies as "disturbing the peace," it is those wedding cavalcades.

What Others Think

THE LAW WE WOULD MAKE

(The Stouffville Tribune)

If we had the drafting of certain laws, we would make one, that would make it an offense to print pictures showing cowboys or any others pointing guns and pistols at persons. We would make it an offense to show that kind of scene on the screen, and finally we would forbid the manufacture of toy pistols.

We thought of this the other day as we saw four lads doing an imaginary assault job on one of their buddies, by shooting him in an imaginary way. There is so much of this, that the time has come when other forms of fun could better be devised.

Let's have a period of rest from years of "might is right," which is more or less instilled in the lads by this form of play.

THE COMMON ROUND THE GRANDMOTHERS SPEAK

Once a year in August, our Women's Institute—Bogartown, meets in the hands of the grandmothers. For over 20 years of the 26 of my membership, I have reported this meeting and until this year, it has always been held at the home, first at Pine Orchard and later at Newmarket, of Mrs. Charles Flintoff.

This year, for a reason with which the whole world can sympathize, the housing shortage, Mrs. Flintoff had to forego what for years had been her pleasure and her privilege and let the meeting pass into other hands.

But she was with us, when we met at the home of Mrs. Wesley and Mrs. Frank Williams—an honored and a most welcome guest.

Splendid Turn-out
There was a splendid turn-out of grandmothers, and three great-grandmothers, Mrs. C. Flintoff, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. E. Penrose, who all came in one car, and whose combined ages, I was told, made the sum of 250 years!

Not Like Tradition
We were proud to have all the grandmothers with us, but they had nothing to be proud of in the way of age, for like all grandmothers nowadays, they did not look like the traditional grandmother of the story book age—there was nothing to distinguish them from non-grandmothers.

Even the great-grandmothers didn't look like the grandmothers of tradition. They do not live in the past. They are of today and as keenly interested in world and domestic problems as their grandchildren.

What I can recollect of the only grandmother who was alive when I arrived on this planet, is that she lived in the lives of her children and in the past. She told lovely fascinating tales of her childhood in Scotland, and although she was a heavy reader, she never went far from home, keeping in touch through her children and grandchildren with the more modern trends.

I am going to write the story of my two grandmothers as it has been told to me for both, one Irish and one Scotch, read exactly like fairy tales.

But to return to the grandmothers of today. After the business of the meeting was over and I am glad to say, it included preparations to send more boxes to Britain, the grandmothers took over, with Mrs. Elmer Starr presiding. Each grandmother was asked to make some little contribution to the program in song or story.

Living Not Talking
Marion Starr said to me that each number was characteristic of the person who gave it. Most of them were brief; one felt they believed in living the life of a grandmother, rather than talking about it.

They sang the songs, which are never old, but grow dearer with time and associations; they read interesting bits about grandmothers and grandchildren and there was a contest on things our grandmothers missed. I remember the first grandmother's meeting I attended twenty odd years ago, and at the home of Mrs. Charles Flintoff, at Pine Orchard. Looking back, there is a certain sadness—a reaching out for the touch of a vanished hand, for Mrs. Abraham Skinner and Mrs. Van Luvén, who took part that day, have joined the host of those who "walk in green pastures and beside still waters".

Harnessing Another 81,000 Horsepower for Hydro

People sometimes ask us what we are doing about providing more electricity for Ontario. Many know how close we are now to using up all our present supply.

Since the end of the war, Hydro's peak load demand has increased approximately 500,000 horsepower or more than 25% of the highest wartime demand, and is still mounting.

What are we doing about it? Above is a part, but only a part, of the answer. It shows the great power development at Stewarville, on the Madawaska River in Eastern Ontario, which was started many months ago when materials and labor were in even shorter supply than now. It will give you 81,000 horsepower commencing next year. With other Hydro developments being rushed to completion, an added 500,000 horsepower will be available in the next five years. In the meanwhile we must all use Hydro sparingly so there will be enough to go around.

Around Town

About the men and women you meet around town almost everyday.

The son of a farmer and condescended from Scottish stock, Wilbert Moffat "Moff" Cockburn has had an outstanding career in the field of agriculture. His father's parents emigrated from Scotland to Canada in the year 1834, and his mother came out in 1858. Moff was born in 1895 at Aberfoyle near Guelph.

He was educated at "a little stone schoolhouse", and Guelph C.I. before going to Normal school in Alberta, and he taught for six months in Alberta before joining the army and going overseas. He spent 15 months in France before he "got a blighty" during the big drive which finished the war.

His wounds were not serious, however, and he returned to Guelph and obtained his B.S.A. degree from O.A.C. in 1923. As an undergraduate he spent one summer as assistant supervisor of the Soldiers' Settlement Board in Alberta, one summer touring with a veterans' concert party raising money for the O.A.C. memorial hall, and other summers serving as potato inspector in Manitoba.

Was Assistant Here

On graduating, Moff was appointed assistant agricultural representative for York county at the time when R. J. Rogers was representative, and nine months later was appointed representative for North Simcoe with headquarters in Barrie. It was then that he took up with himself a wife.

W. M. COCKBURN

After 20 months, Moff was appointed farm manager and lecturer at the Claresholm School of Agriculture and Demonstration Farm in Alberta, and in 1928 he was appointed agricultural "rep" for Carleton county, with headquarters at Ottawa. Eight years later, he was transferred to York county, where he has held that position ever since.

Moff served as president and secretary of the athletic association as a student at O.A.C. ("not to be confused with the Ontario Athletic Commission"), and "did a little boxing and running." Of late, however, his athletic activities have been confined mainly to lawn bowling greens and the cribbage board, "and not much of the latter, either." He won the marksmanship cup while in the high school cadets, and enjoys hunting when he has the time for it, which isn't often.

He was president of the Newmarket Lions club in 1942 and a deputy district governor in 1943. He is a member of several local agricultural organizations, and is secretary of the Agricultural Representatives' Association of Ontario.

Moff met his wife, the former Isabel Moore, in the Presbyterian choir, and they were married in 1924. Moff still sings in the choir here, "but my wife had to stop to sit in the family pew and keep the three boys from fighting." The boys are Gordon, Donald and Douglas, "all good Scottish names." Moff is an elder of St. Andrew's church and a member of the board of management.

UNION STREET

The regular meeting of the Union Street Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. M. Woodward on Thursday, Sept. 11, at 2 p.m. The motto is "If you are waiting for something to turn up, turn up your sleeves," and the roll-call will be, "Invite a visitor and introduce her." Citizenship will be the topic, and the program committee is Mrs. Wm. Moulds, Mrs. W. Beckett and Mrs. W. Rose. Each member is asked to bring a salad. Kindly note change of date of this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morton, Detroit, were holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Micks and family last week. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Micks they visited their aunt, Mrs. J. Faulkner, at Alliston.

No Room for Gossip in Home

Fern is nine years old and a very competent and obliging miss she is—but she gossips and makes fun of people. Fern is a favorite visitor in the neighborhood and a welcome guest among her relatives. Wherever she goes, she makes herself useful with her hands and entertaining with her tongue—if one likes gossip.

Fern doesn't mind doing a sink full of dirty dishes for one family because there are so many to listen to her stories about other people. She tells about dusting for one lady and finding dried orange peels and egg shells under the rug. Another lady throws all her burned cookies in the toilet so her husband won't be mad at her for burning them, etc., etc.

In an attempt to initiate her brother Ken's bride into the family, Fern spared no one's private life. "Grandmother has a bald spot so she buys hair to cover it, then combs her own hair over it so nobody knows." "Daddy's teeth are rotten and they smell when he doesn't smoke his pipe. When mother tells him he should go to the dentist, he gets mad and says he hasn't a store tooth in his head and that's all she has. That makes mother mad but she goes ahead and makes us brush our teeth every day."

"Aunt Clara says she liked the girl Ken was supposed to marry last year better than you, but Uncle Frank said she talked too much and he hopes you have more sense 'cause you aren't as pretty."

"Mother told Daddy she didn't like you messing around in her kitchen, getting in her way all the time. Daddy said Ken didn't make enough money to live any place else; besides, Ken is paying enough for room and board to pay all the grocery bills, Daddy says. He says that is worth some trouble with you, but he is going to ask you not to sit in his chair by the window and to stop trying to sing when he's home."

"Ken wants to live at home because he likes to eat and you can't cook. He thinks you should learn to cook like mother before you move away from home. Ken's an awful baby—why, one time—"

Fern didn't have a chance to finish her blabbing. Ken's wife suddenly interrupted the conversation, "That's enough, please. If you can't find anything good to say about anybody, don't bother talking to me."

Fern's childhood had been spent too much with adults. She understands and repeats their small talk, adding her own observations. She hasn't any sense of discretion. Her conversation has reached the stage where it ceases to be cute; it endangers the happiness and congeniality of the neighborhood as well as the family.

Instead of associating so much with adults, playing games with children her own age would be healthier recreation for this nine-year-old.

A much happier and more peaceful world this would be if the individuals within it had as their maxim: "If you can't say anything good about a person, don't say anything."

U.K. BRIDE WED IN QUEENSVILLE

Queensville gave a characteristic Canadian welcome to a pretty English war bride in a happy shower of beautiful and serviceable gifts last Friday evening. None could have shown how much such a welcome meant as she did at the unexpected event.

On Saturday afternoon, Aug. 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Alleyne, a beautiful and quiet wedding was solemnized when Miss Doris Evelyn Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Turner of Reading, England, and Mr. Harry Leslie Alleyne were united in marriage, Rev. Albert E. Millen, B.Th., officiating.

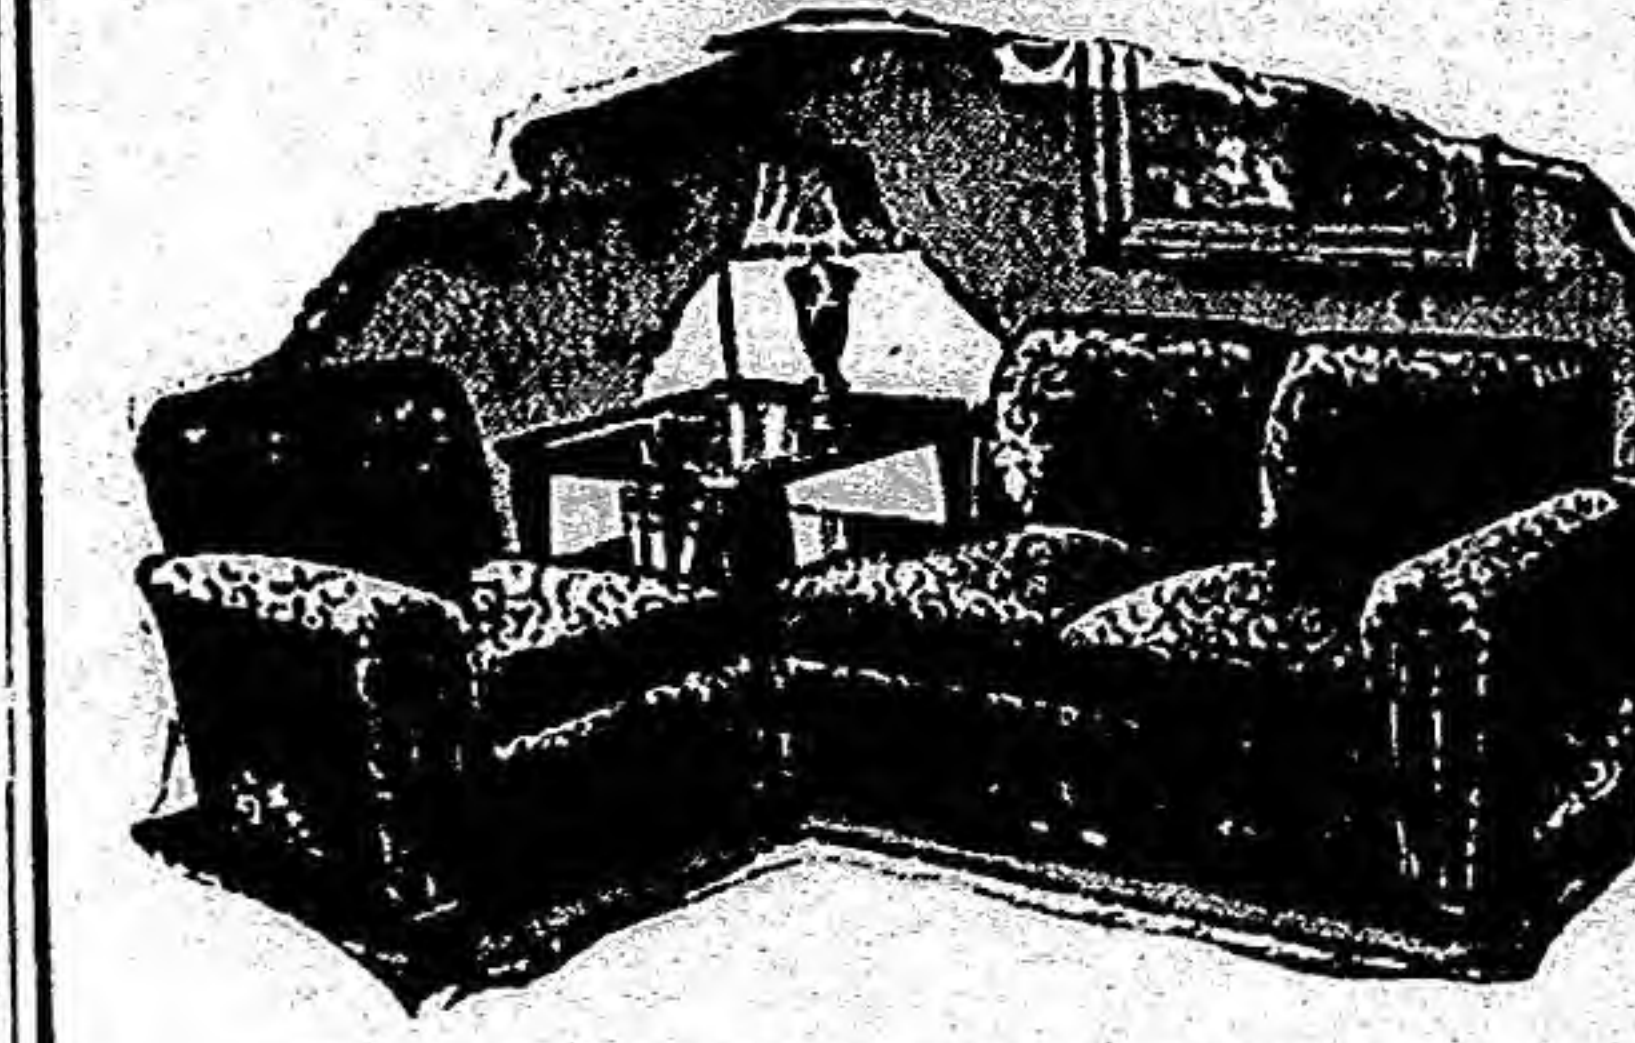

To the wedding march, played by Mrs. James Morris, the bride was led beneath a large bell and stood surrounded by lovely blooms of gladioli. She looked lovely in a dress of white silk jersey with corsage of red roses. She was attended by Mrs. Charles Sieger, sister of the groom, who wore a dress of flowered blue silk with corsage of pink roses. Mr. Charles Alleyne was his brother's groomsman.

Mrs. John Alleyne received in a turquoise blue dress at the reception which followed. Some five or six cables of good wishes came from England to send the happy couple on their way. On leaving for their trip north, the bride wore a suite of blue with white accessories. On their return they will reside in Toronto. Every good wish goes with them.

...so Mary will take up nursing after all

IT LOOKED for a while as if a temporary financial problem in the family might keep Mary from finishing "High". If she had to quit school to help the family income that would have meant good-bye to her hopes of becoming a nurse.

But here she is, starting her final year. Did her Dad suddenly come into some money?

No... and yes. He consulted his bank manager, who told him how the bank, through personal loans, often helped people to meet just such situations. Arrangements were made, and now Mary will take up nursing after all.

In 1946 Canada's banks made half a million personal loans to Canadian men and women.

THIS IS ONE INSTANCE of how Canada's 3,200 branch banks play their part in the daily life and work of Canadians.

Kettleby United Church Re-opens After Decoration

Kettleby—For some 75 years or more the red brick church, first known as Kettleby Methodist and later as Kettleby United, has been standing as a lighthouse on the hill. It was well built with stone, brick and mortar but time takes its toll and finally the church had to be closed for repairs and alterations.

This old building, which is one of King township's landmarks, was closed in late June with repairs and decorating starting at once. The church was erected in the early days and was built on the old Methodist plan of having a church that both looked and stood four square. While this type of building does not give the most pleasing lines to the eye it characterizes what the church stands for. After some consideration it was decided to re-decorate in the same way. August 23 found the church finished and ready for the opening Aug. 24.

Sunday was hot and as this church has had a reputation for holding its people to the seats in hot weather, some fear was experienced lest the new job do the same but the fears were groundless for no sticking was experienced.

The church had as its special speaker for the morning Rev. Harold O. Hutchinson, M.A. B.D., President of Toronto Conference. He came from his summer cottage in Muskoka and it was considered an honour to have him interrupt his holiday. The church's choir sang the special music and rounded out a delightful service. F. Curtis as leader and Mrs. R. Marshall at the electric organ gave as their closing offering Ring Out the Bells of Heaven by G. F. Root.

This was believed to be one of the finest offerings that the choir ever gave. The minister, Rev. C. E. Cragg, asked for a special offering on this occasion and it was learned after the services that the givings for the day averaged $5 per member. It was believed to be the largest offering in the history of the church.

The day was climaxed at the evening service with Rev. Archer Wallace, M.A. D.D., as the guest speaker, and a choir of 14 male voices from Elders Mills.

REO TURNS ON A DIME... AND SAVES YOU dollars!

The new Rees will save you for any other truck you have ever driven. You'll enjoy the amazing ease of handling; turn on a dime, get into tight places, or through traffic, like a charm. The Gold Crown engine is built specially for trucks—the frames are cold-rolled and much heavier. The dual-action primary brakes are a real safety feature. And you can carry more pay-load on a Reo, per inch of wheelbase, putting a little extra profit in each trip that is straight "value". Repair costs are cut to a minimum—because Rees are precision-built by men who manufacture only trucks and buses, and can plan for trucking economies from the ground up.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

One Acquitted, Other Held In Lumber Theft Charge

Newmarket—D. C. Hamilton was acquitted on Friday when he was arraigned before Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake, O.B.E., K.C., to answer to two charges of theft, but John J. Russell, who was jointly charged, was remanded for trial on $2,000 bail at the next higher court.

Hamilton and Russell, both of Toronto, were charged with stealing 3,000 feet of lumber valued at approximately $250, from H. Dike, Mount Albert, and with stealing a quantity of sod, value under $25, from Walter Case, Mount Albert. Harry Rose acted for the defence. Both men pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Dawson Dike, Mount Albert, said the lumber had been taken from a farmyard where it was being stored on July 22. "We bought the lumber from Matt Little, Mount Albert, had it cut by a small portable sawmill owned and operated by Bruce Rolling, Mount Albert, and stored it on the property from which it was stolen. I did not give any one authority to remove the lumber, which was cut into 1 1/2 inch pine for sash, and I reported the theft to Constable Jardine.

Said He Saw Lumber
"I saw some lumber later at a lumber yard on Kingston Road, and I identified it as mine by the saw marks. It was the same kind of lumber and was cut the same size. The pile was about the same size too. I have no doubt but that it was the same lumber," Dike said.

Cross examination revealed that Dike had purchased the lumber some two months before he discovered it had been stolen, and that the markings were Dike's only means of identification. "I wouldn't say there is no other saw like Rolling's in Canada, and similar markings could be on lumber other than that which I lost," he said. "The lumber was difficult to grade out."

Bruce Rolling said the pile of wood which was said to be stolen was sawed in the early part of May. "I was later shown a pile of wood in a lumber yard on Kingston Road, and it was the same pile," he said. He identified a piece of lumber produced in court as part of the pile in the lumber yard. He said there had been a couple of hollow logs in each pile. Rose objected to the introduction of that means of identification. "The logs ought not be referred to unless they are here for the defence to cross examine on. The object which the crown alleges to be stolen must be identified in specie, and the defence definitely must have the opportunity of exhausting the possibility that the lumber referred to is not necessarily the same," he said.

Says Lumber the Same
Rolling said he had brought the plank produced in court back from the lumberyard with him. "The lumber in the pile at the yard was 1 1/2 inch and the width and quantity matched that which was stolen exactly," he said. "When I brought this piece back I put it on the carriage of the mill, flat against the headblocks. I moved the carriage forward, and the piece of lumber fit exactly. Only a small fraction of the outside shoulder was cut fresh. From various comparisons which I made, I haven't the least doubt but that the lumber was cut by my saw. There are very few 42-inch saws around."

Cross-examined, Rolling said there might be 1,000 such saws in the country as far as he knew, and similar marks might be made by any other 42-inch saw. He said similar lumber is cut by hundreds of mills.

Harold Magee, employed by Simpson Planing mills, Toronto, said he had bought the lumber later identified by Dike and Rolling from J. Russell on July 24 for $241.58. "I gave him a cheque which has been paid and which was endorsed by J. Russell," he said the amount paid was the market price of the lumber and the transaction was not an unusual one.

Constable Joseph Jardine testified that after receiving the report of the theft he had searched all of the lumber yards in the district and had learned that a load of lumber had been taken through Pine Orchard in the early morning of July 24. "I found that that load had been taken to the Moore Planing mill, where those in the truck had requested that the lumber be re-sawed for flooring. The men then offered to sell the load to Moore, but he turned it down. I later located the load at Simpson's mill."

George Moore said he could not identify the men who had brought the load to him.

Moves For Dismissal
Mr. Rose moved for a dismissal of the charge against both accused. "There has been no identification sufficient for a court of law of the lumber purchased by Dike from Little, and that lumber has not been tied in with the lumber purchased by Simpson. There has been no evidence to show that the Russell who sold the lumber is the Russell in court, nor is there any evidence to show that the Russell who endorsed the cheque is the Russell in court."

"There is no tie-up between the lumber purchased by Magee and that stolen from Dike. There is no evidence to prove that the plank in court was part of the stolen lumber, and even if there Collection of vegetables, Mrs. were, there is nothing to tie it in with the accused. There is no evidence against Hamilton at all. His name has not even been mentioned," he said.

Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong agreed that there was no evidence against Hamilton, but said there was a prima facie case against Russell.

The sod charge was dismissed against both men when Walter Case, Mount Albert, said Russell and Hamilton had paid for one load of sod, and he was not sure that any more had been taken.

MOUNT ALBERT
N. A. OLDHAM STRICKEN
WORKING IN FIELDS

Victim of a heart attack while working in a field on the farm of his nephew Aug. 18, Norman Arthur Oldham, 82, collapsed and died before medical aid could be summoned.

Mr. Oldham was helping turn over grain when he complained of a pain in his elbow. Walking over to a fence to rest, he suddenly collapsed. Dr. G. W. E. Macpherson pronounced the elderly man dead upon his arrival.

A farmer all his life, Mr. Oldham, though retired, often aided his nephew. He owned farms at Schomberg and Agincourt before coming to Mount Albert. Born in Uxbridge township, he was the son of the late Lavina Jagger and Elliott Oldham.

He is survived by his widow, the former Annie Grose; two daughters, Ina, Reg. N., of Toronto, and Florence, at home; and two brothers, Abel, of Oshawa, and William, of Mount Albert.

Rev. W. H. Burgess conducted the funeral service Aug. 20. Pallbearers were Leslie, Charles, and E. Oldham, Ormond Toole, Lloyd Grose and Norman Brooks. Interment was at Mount Albert.

MOUNT ALBERT

Mr. Matt Little has returned from a trip to Detroit and Omar, Mich., where he went to visit his eldest brother, Seymour, who left these parts many years ago and since has lived across the line in Michigan.

Mr. Gordon Wagg, Belleville, has joined his family which is holidaying at the home of Mrs. W. D. Stokes.

Mrs. Roy Stewart left on Sunday to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Pearson at Kitchener for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Amy Oldham, Agincourt, has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Art Oldham.

Misses Lola Campbell and Vi. Oldham spent several days last week at Bala, Muskoka.

Mrs. Hugh Price is holidaying this week at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. Alvin Harding, St. Mary's, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Toole.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sparrow, Mr. Thos. Johnson and Miss Hilda Snell, Caledon East, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cooper.

Dr. Jas. Hamilton and Miss Marjorie Schulte of New York state and Mr. and Mrs. Maguire, Ann and Jimmy, of Kirkland Lake have been guests of Mrs. Agnes Crowle.

Reverie Shock
Mr. and Mrs. Lamb each received an electrical shock when the lightning came into their home through a lamp during the bad thunder storm last week.

There were 227 entries in the recent flower show and would have been many more only for the rain spoiling many flowers.

Miss Marian Sparrow, Brampton, has been a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. Cooper.

Miss Beverly Couper has returned from holidays spent with relatives at Mono Road.

Jackie and Mavis Macpherson have been visiting their grandmother at Carleton Place.

My Fish
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rolling and Betty have been at their cottage near Jackson's Point and while out fishing, Bruce caught three lake trout weighing 8, 7 1/2, 7 lbs. respectively.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. E. Macpherson are away for a week's holidays having gone on a fishing trip in Algonquin Park.

All those who expect to attend high school at Newmarket are asked to contact Miss O. Tinsdale or Mr. Howard Morton, who is in charge of the school bus. Please do so at once.

SHUR GAIN FEED SERVICE

More Select Hogs

Ontario farmers have established a record for supplying a higher percentage of select grade hogs than any other province in Canada.

Ontario farmers know that select hogs are produced through good management and good feeding. Healthy litters, from good breeding stock and fed balanced rations, will grade out a far greater percentage of grade A carcasses than will scrub stock, haphazardly fed. Good feeding is playing an increasingly important part—and SHUR-GAIN Hog Grower, the balanced feed for growing better hogs, is becoming outstandingly popular with wise farmers.

SHUR-GAIN Hog Grower is made of quality animal proteins, vitamins and minerals, for fast, economical growth and lower cost of production. You'll be sure of healthier, stronger litters and better marketing results, when your hogs are fed tasty, palatable SHUR-GAIN Hog Grower. It's the fresh hog grower, made by your local SHUR-GAIN Feed Service Mill.

In Memoriam
Harrison—In loving memory of a dear father, George Harrison, who passed away August 28, 1944.
The face I loved is now laid low,
His loving voice is still,
The hand so often clasped in mine
Lies now in death's cold chill.
I often sit and think of him
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Always remembered by son,
Thomas, daughter-in-law, Velma, and George.

Harrison—In loving memory of a dear father, George Harrison, who passed away August 28, 1944.
He is gone but not forgotten,
And as dawn's another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness will come o'er us,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed.
Always remembered by son,
Ross, daughter-in-law, Helen, and family.

Hayes—In loving memory of Marjorie who passed away Aug. 28, 1944.
Time may heal the broken-hearted,
Years may make the wound less sore,
But it cannot fill the longing
For the loved one gone before.
Who shall say the grief is lessened
Though the smile may hide the tears.
Memories keep the wound still open
Despite the passing of the years.
Lovingly remembered by father, mother and sister.

Hayes—In loving memory of our niece, Marjorie Hayes, who passed away the 28th day of August.
When the twilight hour draws near
And sunset flames the sky,
We think of our dear niece
And the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting

Old Files Tell Of Life
Here In Forgotten Days

Every so often word is received from different people throughout the district that they have in their possession historical or "just old" documents of more than passing interest. From Aurora comes word that F. R. Dobson still has the Crown deed to concession 8, lot 1, King, which was drawn up on May 17, 1802.

The writing on the parchment, which appears to be what is generally referred to as "sheepskin", is said to be excellent and still easily legible—this despite the fact that the old style "s" which looks like an "f", is used throughout the document. The deed was issued to Aaron Cripps of the township of Barton, Lincoln county.

While looking through old books, Walt Flintoff, Newmarket, came across a weigh sheet showing that on August 3, 1883, J.
Ballard, weigh master, weighed something unspecified for Chas.
Flintoff. The sheet was printed on the old Era steam press.

Findings Old Eras

Mrs. C. W. Davidson, 40
Cherrywood Ave., Toronto, found some copies of the Era dated 1898 and 1903. "They had lain in my husband's safe until 1943 and are worn at the edges and hard to handle from being folded," she said. "Ever since I can remember the Era was in our home. I am in my 74th year so it is like an old friend."

Excerpts which Mrs. Davidson found of interest in the old copies are: from a 1903 Era—"C. D.
Wilson has just made to order for Thos. Evans of Mount Albert a set of harness with tugs four inches wide and other parts in proportion. The whole harness, which weighs 150 lbs., is the heaviest set in the country. Mr.
Evans claims his team is strong enough to break any ordinary harness but thinks this will hold."

"Mr. Seth Jewell has dug a cellar for a new house."

"Mr. Ab Millar has taken a situation in Browncombe's store in Uxbridge."

"Messrs. Geo. Halgh and sons have moved into the Millar block. They have a good supply of cloth and gents' furnishings on hand. John Spaulding is the other tailor."

From the 1898 Era: "The steamer Enterprise is engaged in towing logs on Lake Simcoe."

"Newmarket had 15 loads of grain in the station at one time.
$1.19 paid for same. Shipments for the past week: Inwards, eight cars merchandise, four cars coal, five cars lumber, one car lath;
outwards, eight cars merchandise, 18 cars grain, one car iron, two cars stock, five cars wooden-ware."

New Anthem Composed
By Roche's Pt. Resident

Since 1910, John Brundle has been writing hymns and songs and over a period of years, has composed many ballads, spirituals, and tunes of the sea-chanty type. Recently he has written a piece of music in the form of a Canadian anthem.

Mr. Brundle, who has been a resident of Roche's Point for 35 years, was born and raised in Bromesville, Suffolk, England.
He says that he was not familiar with the technicalities of music until he was 40 years old and even since he has been writing music, has not mastered any particular instrument.

His most recent composition is called Canada My Home. Mr.
Brundle believes that by teaching young children to sing about Canada, they will grow up with a stronger love for their native land. "In the United States, they drill patriotism into their school children but in Canada we don't have enough of that," he said.

A ballad of his called 'Tis Then I'll Meet You There was inspired by the setting at Roche's Point.

Mr. Brundle came to Canada from England in 1913. He lived for a short time in New York and in Montreal where for three and a half years he worked for a stock company. For 29 years, he has looked after the property now owned by Loretta Abbey at Roche's Point during the summer season. Much of his time in winter months is spent in Philadelphia and New York.

Since he came out from England, he has preferred to live in Canada instead of the United States. He has a great loyalty toward the Empire and a deep admiration for the United Empire Loyalists. Mr. Brundle said that he thought that Canada should soon have 20 million people instead of 12 million. He is very interested in local history and the history of the province and has a vast knowledge of facts and information about it.

In 1930, he made a three months' trip from New York to the Canary Islands, Gibraltar, Algiers, Spain, Italy and across France alone. After spending a week in Paris he flew to London and then back to New York. He has travelled to England several times. His wife and also a married daughter live in England.

Mr. Brundle travelled through the West Indies in 1937. With all his travelling he has a strong sentiment for this country and Canada and Roche's Point is home to him.

NOTE HEAVY DEMAND FOR CORNELL 595

The York County Crop Improvement Association has been endeavouring to hold as much as possible of the new Cornell 595 loose smut resistant wheat in the county for the benefit of the local farmers. It was thought the supply of seed was fairly well cleaned up on the basis of estimated yield but when the seed was cleaned up and graded several of the growers report larger yields of seed than they had anticipated. W. M. Cockburn, Newmarket, secretary of the later ones. "The Spys" are not Crop Improvement Association, is taking the orders and will put farmers in touch with one of the growers of this new loose smut resistant variety which was grown by 75 per cent of the 50 Bushel Winter Wheat Club this year.

The fields were inspected by the seed inspectors of the plant protection service and the seed is being sealed by them also as a protection to the buyers. Orders should be placed at once.

Good Apple Crop Seen Despite Weather

Because of the loss of the British market for apples, growers in the district are apprehensive of the future of their apples.
Despite freak weather, which has prevailed, bumper crops are reported at both the Mulock orchard and the Aurora orchard, with early apples especially heavy.

Lloyd Prosser, foreman at the Mulock orchards where there are 180 acres in apples, said the crop is bigger than last year, with early varieties better than later ones. "The Spies are not what you would call a bumper crop, but the McIntosh and other early ones are really a good crop. The Baxters, Blenheim Orange, Milwaukees and Snows are also heavy. Even the Spys are a good average crop and are the main crop here."

W. S. Calhoun, foreman of the Aurora orchards owned by W.
Fleury and Ivan Cameron, said he has 140 acres in apples.
"The Snows, Wealthys and Macs are all very heavy, but the Spys and Stark's are not," he said.

Mr. Prosser said the Mulock orchard sells its apples mainly to wholesalers, and that because of the present uncertain state of affairs he does not know what is going to happen this year. "The Nova Scotia apples were going to Britain, and if that market is eliminated, they will have to either come up here, or some other arrangement will have to be made. If they come up here, they will reduce the prices here,
and everyone, including the buyers, are holding back and waiting to see what happens. The U.S. is buying some apples this year, but I have no idea how many they will take."

Mr. Calhoun said that the Aurora orchards markets its apples through a chain store, and its only concern was the effect the loss of the British market will have on price. "If all of the other apples come up here, the price will be forced down. However, some may now go to Australia and other places. Containers are going to be hard to get too, and that will be another worry to face."

"I think that the situation will boil down to the fact that the good apples will sell themselves, just as any good product will, but that this year growers are going to be stuck with their poorer quality apples."

—Mrs. J. S. Osborne is visiting her cousin, Prof. J. C. Steckley, and Mrs. Steckley, Ridgeway, this coming week.

Charged In Sutton Theft Pair Held On $10,000 Bail

Newmarket—Leonard Bridges was fined a total of $60 and costs, his driver's license was suspended for a further three months, and his brother's truck was ordered impounded for three months in magistrate's court here Friday after he was convicted of careless driving and of driving while his license was suspended. Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake, O.B.E., K.C., presided.

Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong filed a certificate from the department of highways stating that Bridges' driving permit had been suspended for careless driving in February.

Constable W. R. Hill said that when he investigated an accident on High St., Sutton, at 1 a.m. on July 23, he found that a car on the east side of the road facing south had been struck and badly damaged by a northbound truck. "There were five people there and no one would admit that he had been the truck driver," he said. "Later the accused phoned me and told me he had been driving. He said he works at Musselman's Lake and had started home from Sutton when his lights burned out. He told me that because it was raining hard he thought it would be better to go back to Sutton than to continue home without lights."

Bridges said he had gone to Sutton originally to see about a job there. "I offered to pay for the damages to the car, but I can't pay all at once," he said. He was fined $10 and costs for careless driving, and $80 and costs or 30 days for driving while his license was suspended. He asked that the truck not be impounded because it belonged to his brother and was his means of livelihood. Magistrate Hollinrake said that under the highway traffic act the impounding of the truck was mandatory, but he suggested that Bridges take the matter up with the department.

$10,000 Bail

Bail was set at $10,000 when Alvin and Evelyn Taborn, Toronto, were arraigned on a charge that they broke into the post office at Sutton and stole cash, postal notes, postage stamps, unemployment insurance stamps, money order blanks, registered mail, two date stamps, and a registered mail receipt book. A receiving charge was also laid. The remand was at the request of Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong, who stated that the bail should be at least $10,000 "because the theoretical value of the money orders alone is $80,000." Frank Nassio acted for both accused. Detective Allen Wallace laid the charges.

Eli Gaudette, Toronto, was fined $15 and costs when he was convicted of careless driving on No. 11 highway as the result of an accident near Holland Landing. Burnell Wilker, Stratford, said he had just rounded a curve in the road at about 1.15 a.m. when he noticed the lights of a car coming from the other direction. "The lights appeared at first to be on the opposite side of the road, but as the other car approached they crossed the

"Hounded" by HEADACHES

Blinding pain, constant throbbing can make life a misery. Many headaches are caused by the failure of the kidneys to perform their normal duty of filtering poisonous wastes and excess acids from the blood. If kidneys fail and poisons remain in the system, headaches, backache, rheumatic pains, disturbed rest may often follow. DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS help your kidneys clear out trouble-making poisons and excess acids so that you feel better—rest better—work better. Get Dodd's today. 148

PUTTING fertilizer on winter wheat in the fall has been a common practice for years because this pays dividends.

A newer practice that also gives good results is the fertilization of pastures and alfalfa fields in fall with potash and other plant foods.

The right mixture and amount is important. Your nearest experimental farm will tell you how to get best results in your district—or you can write The Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

You will find the experienced manager of our nearest branch sympathetic to your problems, willing to consider loans for fertilizer or other purposes that will increase the earnings of your farm.

Many attended the ice cream social which was held in Kettleby last Thursday night. A number from here took part in the program which followed. Mr. and Mrs. H. Stone and George and Jack, from Toronto, played a number of selections on their accordions and bass fiddle. Mr. Stone also put on his magic act. Miss Beatrice Proctor sang two selections, By The Light Of The Silvery Moon, and Moonlight and Roses. Jack Proctor and Bruce Elder sang Old Shep and Give My Love To Nellie, Jack. A number from here also attended the re-opening services in the United Church in Kettleby on Sunday.

ST. PAUL'S SCENE OF PRETTY RITES
St. Paul's Anglican church, tastefully decorated with gladi- oli, larkspur and phlox, was the setting for the pretty wedding August 9 of Doreen Thelma Louise, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shropshire, to James Henry Sanderson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Rickman Sanderson, all of Newmarket.

Rev. T. J. Rhodes officiated. Mr. Willis played the wedding music while Miss Shirley Firth, cousin of the bride, sang I Love But Thee and during the signing of the register Through the Years. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a full length gown of white taffeta with embroidered lace jacket and wore an emerald pen- dant, a gift from the groom. Her headpiece was a velvet coronet with long veil. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Miss Irene Mc- Nicol was maid of honor in blue and Miss Betty Cooper, brides- maid in yellow broadened organ- dy. Joann Sanderson was junior bridesmaid in pink taffeta. Each wore matching headpiece and carried nosegays of white asters and sweet peas. Little Carol Folkeard was flower girl in white organ dy and carried a basket of sweet peas and pink roses.

Mr. Bill Firth was best man and Mr. Gordon Folkeard and Mr. Charles Yates were ushers. The reception was held at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Wm. Shropshire and Mrs. Shrop- shire. For the reception, the bride's mother wore blue and white silk jersey with white ac- cessories and a corsage of red roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother assisted in white flowered jersey with white ac- cessories and a corsage of red roses.

Included in the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Prosser and family of Windsor; Mrs. Allam and Miss Helen Al- lam, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Jim Bain, all of Toronto; Mrs. D. Campbell, Miss Bernice Camp- bell and Miss Grace Ferguson, of Willowdale; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanderson of Uxbridge; Miss Sally Topper and Mr. Gordon Gardiner, Elgin Mills.

For travelling, the bride wore a white jersey dress with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas and baby's breath. The couple left by motor for Midland and district; they will reside in Bowmanville.

sitting Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lundy. Mr. Jonas Shepherd had charge of the service at Union church on Sunday, Aug. 24.

Sunday-school will meet at 1:30 on Sunday, Aug. 31 and church service at 2:30.

Misses Helen Reid and Betty Hope enjoyed a motor trip to Huntsville, Algonquin park and Ottawa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Collins, New- market, Mrs. E. Auty and Mr. W. Armitage, Toronto, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage.

Midget All-Stars

By Ab. Hulse

Holloway (Markham)	Pitcher	G. Simmons (Aurora)
McArthur (R. Hill)	First base	Brown (Markham)
Petch (Markham)	Second base	Gibson (Newmarket)
Waters (Markham)	Third base	Thoms (Newmarket)
Simmons (R. Hill)	Shortstop	Stephenson (Aurora)
Ward (Stouffville)	Outfield	Kamer (Markham)
Stettan (R. Hill)	"	Shea (Markham)
Case (Aurora)	"	McKnight (Newmarket)
Honorable mention: McArthur (R. Hill), Thompson (Markham), Case (Aurora), Barrager (Aurora), Hugo (Newmarket), Bennett (R. Hill), Wells (Stouffville), Roberts (Markham), Wilkins (Aurora), Reg. Wilkins (Newmarket).		Waters (R. Hill)

To the midget all-star selection previously published came excellent bits of picking by Bill McKett of Newmarket and Bill Holloway of Aurora, and we determined then and there to summarize the results. We are certain the two teams will understand why we didn't publish their choices. We extend thanks to those who made the selections and we note that Messrs. Holloway and Nighswander came closest to picking the complete team, each having eight players. In all, 28 players were named, including the excellent player, Ron Simmons of Aurora, who while of midget age also rates in the junior class. Ron, we can tell you, has a sure place on the junior all-stars so we left him off the midget team.

Two Unanimous
Ward of Stouffville and Stettan of Richmond Hill were the only two players to be unanimously picked for the first team, although there was little doubt about any of the positions except the outfield berth won by Jim Cook of Aurora. Ringwood and Simmons were heavy pitching favorites and rightly so. It was a toss up between Schell of Stouffville and Black of Markham for the catching spot, one point separating them.

The infield was selected with no more than one variation by each selector. Gibson of Newmarket and Brown of Markham tied in points for first base although Brown had one first-team vote, which Gibson lacked. We left them tied as they are very close in ability.

As will be noted, Markham dominated the choices placing three on the first team and four on the second. Apparently Richmond Hill had a much better club than their showing indicated for they placed three men on the first team with comparative ease. Newmarket failed to place a man on the first team and placed three on the second team. Along with Markham, the Haskett men were the district O.B.A. midget entrants but the opinion of the selectors wouldn't bear out that rating. Stouffville apparently has one or two recruits ready for their junior squad right now. It will be noted throughout that boys who have seen service in higher company, or have played for a year or two like Stettan, Gerry Simmons, Hillaby, Don. Brown, Petch, Jim Cook, Schell, were favored over the younger lads just breaking in.

The organizations who backed, or aided the teams, are to be highly commended for their efforts, but the real praise must necessarily go to the coaches who aside from that duty, generally wound up doing the transportation angle, telephoning, and secretarial work, as well as digging down into the pocket. We did not ask the selectors to pick the coach of the year, but in view of the success of his team, we doubt if anyone will seriously dispute awarding that honor to Doug. James, coach of the Markham team.

With the fine type of players coming up from the midget series, the future of baseball in North York seems assured for

Diamond Patter

GEO. HASKETT JR.

North York Lions League teams are rolling along merrily in the O.B.A. playdowns at this juncture. Doug James' Markham Midgets took the measure of Bowmanville Midgets in the first round, Markham winning 5 to 1 at Bowmanville and taking the return engagement at Markham by 3 to 0 score.

Markham Bantams, North York representatives, chalked up a win in their first test in the O.B.A. Markham took the honors at home from Collingwood "Shipbuilders" by 19 - 16 count. The second contest is to be played at Collingwood today.

Aurora and Whitby have their juvenile B series all tied up at one game each. Aurora won the first tilt on its home grounds 6 - 2, but fell before Whitby in the Lake Ontario town by 9 - 2 margin. The third and deciding game is up for decision at Stouffville town park tonight at 8 p.m.

Stouffville Lions, conquerors of the Newmarket Redmen, now take on the Bowmanville Rotarians in O.B.A. activity. The opening game of the Stouffville-Bowmanville series will be up for decision at Stouffville town park Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. The return engagement is slated for Bowmanville next Wednesday. Manager Geo. Smith of the Lions has his club in top shape for the series, and his charges should make a good showing.

In the Industrial League play-offs it will be Hoffman's vs. Davis Leather. The Tanners ousted the Specialty cabinet makers from the semi-finals round on Monday evening. The old reliable, Ned Tansley, sneaked home with the winning run in the last inning, with the score tied at nine all.

years to come. Players must start with the kids series and we were pleased to see Newmarket and Stouffville enter midget ball this year, aside from their other entry. Messrs. Simmons, Holloway, Nighswander and George Haskett, the quartet responsible for the revival of baseball in these parts, must feel mighty proud of their efforts. Every team playing has uniforms and equipment, capable men are in charge, the conduct of the boys has been exemplary, and the calibre of players is as high as elsewhere under similar conditions.

The only thing lacking is support via the coffee pot. We'd hate to let you know just how little a good-sized crowd will contribute, and how many supposed supporters walk to another part of the field when the take is on.

DOWN THE CENTRE

By AB HULSE

CHIT-CHAT DEPT.

No hitters are nothing new for Joint McComb. During his softball career the colorful McComb has tossed three, one as a member of the Richmond Hill team and one in the army. His display against Aurora last week marked the first time one has been tossed in a district playoff game.

McComb is just about the best all round player on the Vets' club, good in the field and dangerous at the plate. The struggle between him and Bill Bowen in the current softball series promises to be spectacular. Charlie Case of Aurora was the only manager to pick McComb for an all-star pitching berth.

It looked like old times to see that fine sportsman, Charlie Holmes of Hamilton, back in Newmarket again. Charlie, who has been on holidays, was warmly welcomed by his many friends, and he took the opportunity of seeing the first game of the playoffs. He was a bit disappointed to see Newmarket lose, but commented on his former proteges, Cain, Smith, Gibney and VanZant, still being softball stalwarts. He figured that this quartet would probably break up the series before it was over.

Right now he's busy each night with Hamilton Wildcats football entry in the O.R.F.U. The Cats, who were one of the surprises of the 1948 season, have added five American players who are as good as coach Frank Grupp. Chart rates the Cats better than the Tigers and figures the O.R.F.U. brand of football this year will be the best ever.

It was a pleasure to see the obvious enjoyment which Earl Rowe, the popular member of the House of Commons for Dufferin-Simcoe, obtained from driving his own horses and competing against his son, Bill Rowe, who was making his debut in bigtime harness circles last week at Dufferin Park. Earl had three fine horses racing, Van Riddell, Dominion Todd and Earl Todd, and they made a good showing even if not winning first money. Bill Rowe, who has been tutored by his dad, looks like a comer, and we expect to see the Rowe racing tradition carried on for many years.

Mr. Rowe and "Ducko" McDonald are the only M.P.'s to actively participate in sport. There the resemblance between the two ends, and they are just about opposites on every count including political allegiance. Mr. Rowe has long been recognized as one of the outstanding figures in Canadian politics.

Bob Rourke, new headmaster of Pickering College, was a better than average athlete in his day at Brockville C.I., and was manager and assistant coach of the Queen's University track and field team, as well as being a smart fencer. Bert Shaw, captain and defence man for the Newmarket camp hockey team of 1943, is now residing in Stratford and travels from coast to coast selling school supplies for the firm of which he is a member.

Nuggets Shore, Maple, who used to play hockey for Aurora and Kleinburg and was for many years the mainstay of the Aurora pitching staff in the York-Simcoe softball loop, has completed his course as a high school teacher and will be on the staff at Seaford C.I. this year. He has been playing softball for Maple all summer.

Ginger Hall and Bennie Harris, who both used to perform on the ice lanes for Sutton Greenshirts, are teammates on Weston West Yorks in the senior O.L.A. series. Speaking of lacrosse, we note that Fat James, of Aurora-Bradford fame, has been given his release by Mimico Mountaineers and has gone into retirement. Fat has a good job, provided by his former battery C.O., Major Conn. Smythe. He would have looked mighty good in a lacrosse uniform for either Woodbridge or Maple.

George Stockwell, who trained the Newmarket Redmen the year they won the dominion junior hockey championship, is once again back with Toronto Argos, the Grey Cup holders. Argos fly to Winnipeg on Saturday for a series of pre-season games against the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. It's the first trip by air for Canadian football. Argos have another powerhouse outfit.

THE POSTMAN RANG ONCE

From the mailbox comes a couple of unsigned letters. Usually we like to know who the senders are, but we publish excerpts from these two since they obviously bear malice towards none, and are well meant. From Newmarket comes the following: "I have been watching softball games in the county for 20 years and think it would create a little interest this year if your all-star teams were to play a best two-out-of-three series, just to see if it would be a better brand of ball if these boys played for one team than the way things are now, with the lads playing for the different teams. What do you think of this idea, Ab? Would the public go for it or not? Hoping to see this series take place, "Down The Centre Fan." If the O.S. entries do not go too far, it might make an interesting game for charity purposes. It's a thought Doug. May and Harold Rogers might kick around for a day or two.

From Aurora comes the following, "I have been around the country a lot this summer, and when I see what is provided for the kids in other places for recreation, Aurora really takes a back seat. The Lions park at Newmarket is a credit to the town. A little place like Mount Albert has one of the finest parks, with swings and slides for the kids, which puts many bigger places to shame. It is the same in most progressive towns around the district, including Richmond Hill. The youngsters don't seem to break the equipment in these places, and there doesn't appear to be much direct supervision. If these places can do it, and they too must have considered the question of public liability for accidents, why not Aurora? Councilor Swindle appears to be doing his best to do something for Aurora boys and girls, and he should get more support. Surely, by next year, somebody will deal intelligently with the matter. We have a good park. Let's do more than just provide playing space for ball, and somewhere to hold the Horse Show, and carnivals and field days by the Lions, Legion, Board of Trade, etc. Give the kids a break."

This letter speaks for itself and requires little more comment. We agree with the anonymous writer that something can and must be done to fix up the park by 1948. It takes a lot of public opinion to get most things done anywhere. We understand the Aurora town planning committee plans to meet those interested in sports and recreation in Aurora soon. Perhaps from this source will come certain definite recommendations to be followed by council or the public. The question of immediately securing additional park space is another matter that must be considered by not only Aurora, but most other municipalities as well.

ALL-STAR PARADE CONTINUES

Lake Simcoe softball again reaches the all-star parade with the following choices being submitted. First team, pitcher, Ken. Mitchell (Mt. A.); catcher, Doug. Hope (P.O.); 1b, Bud Preston (P.O.); 2b, Cliff. Ward (Sharon); 3b, Doug. Ross (Mt. A.); ss, Doug. Eves (Hope); outfield, H. Watts (Mt. A.), Floyd Breen (Hope), Morley Case (Mt. A.).

Second team, pitcher, Harvey Preston (P.O.); c, Russ Pegg (Hope); 1b, K. Paisley (Mt. A.); 2b, Ken. Case (Mt. A.); 3b, W. Dike (P.O.); outfield, R. McNern (Hope), C. Green (Mt. A.), Don. Glover (Sharon).

That'll give the boys something to digest. So far the north group has not been presented, and we would judge it won't be, since none of the clubs have responded to the request for choices.

Fred. Morris, the manager of the amazing Langstaff lallapaloozas, steps up to bat in the North Yonge softball whirl, and after gazing in the crystal ball chooses the following: First team, c, Army Armstrong (Langstaff); 1b, Mo. Walsh (Newmarket); 2b, Joint McComb (Newmarket); 3b, Mickey Sutton (Aurora); ss, Sonny Charles (Langstaff); outfield, Norm. Legge (Newmarket), Earl MacDonald (Aurora), Roy Russell (Langstaff).

Second team, c, Harold Echlin (R. Hill); p, Teddy Bennett (R. Hill); 1b, Norm. Bowen (Langstaff); 2b, Fred. Evans (Newmarket); 3b, Ralph Curtis (Langstaff); ss, Harvey Gibney (Newmarket); outfield, Jim Cream (R. Hill), Herb. Cain (Newmarket); Ed. Hughes (Langstaff). Fred. has varied the choices submitted so far, and we must admit that Army Armstrong, the Langstaff catcher, will have to rate up near the top, even though this is the first tumble any of the selectors have given him.

Armstrong's play at third base on Thursday in Newmarket was sensational, and his two timely hits spelled disaster for the Vets. In the Richmond Hill series his presence behind the plate made Bowen better than ever, and it was an injured thumb which sent him to third on Thursday. As soon as president Douglas May and secretary Hal Rogers have made their selections, the summary of the softball all-stars will be available.

NOTEBOOK JOTTINGS

Tonight Newmarket Vets invade Langstaff for the second game of the final series for the big, handsome Joe Spillette trophy. Joe is just wondering whether or not his trophy will depart from Canal-town, and the answer squarely rests with "Ceegars" McDonald and company. Fred. Morris and his men expect to make the grade in three straight. The return game awaits the disposition of the O.S.A. round.

Bill Mundell, young Aurora hockeyist, leaves next week for Montreal, bound for Scotland. Like most of the youthful puck-chasers signed for overseas duty, Bill isn't worrying about suspensions by the bickering hockey moguls. We doubt if the C.H.A. goes that far.

North York Gardener

By John Daly

If there is one thing that enhances the beauty of a home more than anything else, it's a beautiful green lawn. As the best time to take care of it is at this time, a few words on the subject of lawn making or re-pairing should be appropriate this week.

Each one of you will have to decide for himself what his lawn needs. Those of you who feel that your lawn is too far gone to repair had better get a head start now and dig it over even if the seed is not to be sown until later. This has a trifling advantage. First the green matter turned under starts to decay. Secondly the ground gets a chance to settle and thirdly any weed seeds in the soil have a chance to germinate and can be destroyed before you sow your grass seed. Dig under any grass and short annual weeds and perennial weed roots should be removed as much as possible. Fall weeds should be cut off and added to your compost heap and the stubble turned under.

Dig as deep as you can without turning up more than an inch of the subsoil. As the lawn is expected to last a long time, good soil is important. If possible get enough manure to make a three inch layer covering the entire area. This should go on before digging. If you are unable to get manure then humus or peat moss about an inch and a half deep should be applied after digging and worked into the top three inches of soil. Grade your lawn so that it has a fairly even shape from the highest point.

Watch Your "PH"
If your soil has a PH of 7 or over an application of lime is indicated. Use five to ten lbs. of agricultural lime per 100 square feet.

The PH is the degree of acidity or alkalinity of the soil. PH 7 is neutral while PH 8 or higher is strongly alkaline. PH 6 is slightly acid and PH 5 or under strongly acid. If in doubt, send a sample of your soil to the Department of Agriculture.

On the seed you buy, depends to a great extent the success or failure of your new lawn. As I said before your lawn is expected to last a long time and the cost of quality seed spread over the year is very small, while the low-priced seed containing a high percentage of annual grass requires an annual expense and continued labour keeping the lawn in shape.

Before sowing your seed, go over the surface lightly with your cultivator being sure to destroy all weeds. Fill in the hollows where the ground has settled and finally go over the entire surface lightly with the rake. If the soil is dry, water it thoroughly before sowing. After sowing be sure the ground does not dry out until the grass is well up. When the grass is 2 to 3 inches high it gets its first mowing. Use a newly sharpened mower and don't cut close. Next week we will discuss the renovation of the old lawn.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

"Milk bottles don't have to be round!"

In some such words a progressive young man challenged tradition and devised a new, space-saving square milk bottle recently adopted by several leading dairies.

This reflects the kind of restless, creative thinking that makes for greater success in any line of business.

Time-saving, money-saving ideas are often surprisingly simple. And they may occur to anyone. But chances are they won't occur to you unless you look for them, and develop a habit of accepting nothing "as is".

No matter where you work, there are countless articles, products, systems, methods capable of improvement, and needs for new inventions and ideas.

When looking for things to improve, it's best to start with those most closely related to your job. Your first idea may not succeed. But keep on trying. Your efforts will be appreciated and eventually rewarded.
